Stir against foreifners by KASI students Union

212. PROF. VIJAY KUMAR MALHOTRA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that fear has gripped among non-tribals in Assam, Meghalaya etc. on the reported threat of starting a Stir against foreigners and the recent settlers by Khasi Students Union;

(b) if so, what steps Government have taken to safeguard the interest of the Indians who have settled in that part of the country from other areas of the country; and

(c) the number of non-tribals who have been uprooted from that part of the country?

THE MINISTRY OF STATE IN MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) to (c) While protesting against the issue of photo identity cards the Khasi Students Union had targetted the non-tribal residents of Shillong during April-June 1994 and included in violent ativities. Some non-tribals were reported to have been assulted and some of their business establishments and houses damaged. Additional units of the Central Para-Military Forces were rushed in and the State Government advised to deal firmly with the situation. Some of the miscreants were arrested. The Union Home Minister and the Minister of State (Internal Security) visited Shilong separately to take stock of the situation and reviewed the law and order arrangements. At improvement in the situation is reported. There are no reports of any such agitation by the Khasi Students Union in Assam or any other State. No definite figures are available of any non-tribals who may have been uprotted from that part of the country due to the Khasi Students' Union agitation.
